SUNSET COMPANY PUSHING
WORK ON TRAMPS CON.

The Sunset Mining and Development company, operating the old Tramps Consolidated company property at Rhyolite, is making improvements in its mill that are designed to increase its capacity, says the Carrara Obelisk. The principal new equipment will consist of a Dorr duplex classifier and a Hardinger ball mill. Some accessory equipment will also be installed. The classifier is now on the ground and concrete foundations for the ball mill are being built. The additions to the equipment will be completely installed and in operation by January 1 and will increase the capacity of the plant to approximately 100 tons per day.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The majority of the British newspapers are surprised at the American note. It is said that England, in considering European problems, has overlooked the seriousness of the shipping question. The Westminster Gazette said: "The note is a more fitting subject for argument between experts than newspapers."

NEW OCCUPATION
FOR SMALL BOY

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The darkening of the London streets has provided a new occupation for the small boy. Armed with a small electric flashlight, he takes his position soon after nightfall at the suburban subway station and carefully scans the faces of arriving passengers. Espying a stranger, he advances, and flashing his little lamp, offers to conduct the stranger to his destination. The price of the service, which is generally taken advantage of, is 10 or 15 cents, according to the distance.

WILL RESUME WORK ON RAILROAD BOY GROUP

RAND, Nov. 4.—Louis Poquette and Will Sirbeck, principal owners of the Railroad Boy group of claims, located on the big mineral zone of the Rand district to the west of the Golden Pen and east of the Queen Regent Merger Mines company estate, are now in Reno arranging matters for an early resumption of operations on the property, says the Western Nevada Miner. They will be in camp the first of the week, when work will be started. They have opened up good bodies of ore that, while of excellent grade, promise much better values with depth. The boys are confident that they have the making of a paying mine and are putting their own money into the development of the property. It is reported that San Francisco capitalists are negotiating a deal for their holdings.

ORE HAULING AUTO

Manager Breckenridge of the Calaveras Copper company in the Santa Fe mining district east of Luning, went to Reno the first of the week on business and while there purchased

DEMOCRATS SPLIT
DEFENSE PROGRAM

House Leader Says He Will Oppose the Plan of the President

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Claude Kitchin, Democratic house leader, following a conference with President Wilson, said he was unable to support the administration's defense program. He plans to oppose the scheme personally, but not as leader. He said: "I will explain when congress opens. The plans do not meet with my approval, especially with regard to the navy. I believe, however, that a majority favors the program." The leadership will probably devolve upon Chairman Pay of the military committee, Chairman Faggett of the naval, Chairman Sherman of the fortifications, or Chairman Fitzgerald of the appropriations committee.

The majority of editorial comments upon the president's note credit the administration with a masterful, unanswerable document. A Tacoma paper said, "It is an election document." A Boston paper, "We believe it will have no effect upon England's methods." Pittsburg, "It lacks teeth."

SING A SONG OF SILVER, FIFTY AND AN EIGHTH

Silver 50 1/8! That is the record price for many a month. Imagine what it means for Tonopah. This camp produces a million and three-quarters ounces a month, and that is a most conservative estimate. A cent rise or fall is $17,500, or $210,000 a year. The difference between the low and high of the past month means a million dollars a year in wages and dividends.

No wonder the camp of Tonopah should rejoice at the strengthening in the market for the white metal. It will bear out the Bonanza's oft reiterated contention that hard money will be put behind the I. O. U.'s of Europe and that the world will return to bimetalism. That may not send silver up to $1.29 an ounce—although it has sold at a premium over gold at a ratio of 16 to 1, but it will put it permanently at 75 cents or better, and that before many months have passed. Even 60-cent silver would mean the dropping of fifty more stamps in this district and the employment of 500 more men. Really the time for self-congratulation seems to be heaving in sight.

MONARCH PITTS WILL HOLE THROUGH SOON

Indications are that the Monarch Pittsburg upraise from the 1600 level will hole through to the 850 tomorrow morning, as the survey measurements as well as the sound of the drills evidence the approach of the connection. This upraise will enable the company to go after the ore that was found there, but which could not be profitably extracted by underground stoping.

ILLINOIS MINE AT LODI WILL RESUME

Dr. C. I. Burt of San Francisco was in Reno this week en route to Lodi, in Nye county, where he was operating the old Illinois mine. The Illinois is one of the old time mines of Nevada, around which is the glamor of romance and tragedy, says the Reese River Revue. Almost 50 years ago Raymond & Ely, then large operators in Pioche and enjoying an international reputation, secured a lease on the Illinois, which had created something of a sensation through the discovery of a very rich galena-silver ore. Raymond & Ely were in financial difficulties at the time and used the proceeds from the Illinois mine to bolster up their finances. They built a small furnace and smelted the ore, shipping the bullion. Financial difficulties finally caused them to abandon the work. From that time on the mine had a checkered career, culminating in the shooting of one of the owners by his brother.

REGENTS DENIED TRIAL

Judge Moran, in the district court at Reno, denied the motion for a new trial made by the regents of the university. He maintains that the Odd Fellows' lodge has complied with the provision of the will of the late Otto F. Hartung. The university is said to be third in line as beneficiary, according to the provisions of the will.

NATIVE QUICKSILVER
OVER IN IONE VALLEY

A discovery of rich cinnabar ore in the Ione valley between Bernice and Wonder, is the latest news from that section. In some places the ore is in pockets which when cracked with the hammer show the quicksilver in a native state, the tiny globules of the metal appearing like silver ore when it has been roasted in a fire.

1300 YARDS OF ROCK
MOVED IN EXCAVATION

The excavation for the tanks to be installed for the better protection against fire will be completed by Saturday. The contractor realized that hand drilling would not prove economical, in view of the hardness of the rock that had to be blasted out, and one of the longest strings of horses ever seen in Tonopah hauled a compressor half way up Brougner mountain. The efficacy of machinery over hand power has been distinctly proven.
